

LUND UNIVERSITY

Call for Papers

ENSO V

THE FIFTH CONFERENCE OF THE EUROPEAN NETWORK ON SOCIAL ONTOLOGY | LUND, SWEDEN
AUGUST 30 – SEPTEMBER 1, 2017

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Stephen Butterfill (University of Warwick)
Sara Rachel Chant (Tulane University)
Christian List (London School of Economics)
Karen McComb (University of Sussex)
Julie Zahle (University of Copenhagen)

BOOK SYMPOSIA

Kirk Ludwig (2016)
From Individual to Plural Agency: Collective Action 1

Participants:

Sara Rachel Chant, Tulane University
Kirk Ludwig, University of Indiana
Michael Schmitz, University of Vienna
Raimo Tuomela, University of Helsinki

Francesco Guala (2016)
Understanding Institutions: The Science and Philosophy of Living Together

Participants:

Francesco Guala, University of Milano
Rico Hauswald, Technische Universität Dresden
Elisabeth Pacherie, Institut Jean Nicod, CNRS
Wlodek Rabinowicz, Lund University

ENSO V is an interdisciplinary conference concerning social ontology. Possible topics include but are not limited to

- The metaphysics of social reality
- Team reasoning, coordination problems, preference and value aggregation
- The nature of collective intentionality and agency
- Moral and legal aspects of collective agency
- Social conventions, norms, and power
- Non-human sociality

Deadline for submission of abstract March 1st

Deadline for registration August 1st

www.ensov.org

www.fil.lu.se

